

Opening Ceremony of Campus English Newspaper

By Li Yanwen

Foundation

On November 4th, Campus English Newspaper was newly and formally founded in our college with more than 60 active members.

Campus English Newspaper is a good platform to improve your English but also upgrade your integrated skills, especially the communication skills and personal aesthetic( 审美 的) concept.

Election

On the afternoon of November 4th, the ceremony of Campus English Newspaper was held. Most of the members joined in the election. All of the candidates, one by one, went to the front of the auditorium to make an election speech. Before the election, one of the candidates, Xie Jiafeng, the only boy candidate said to us that he was not really sure whether he would be elected or not, but at last, he managed to be one of the leaders of the Editorial Department. "I'm lucky," he said, "And I'll try my best to learn from experience."

Like Xie Jiafeng, all the candidates gave the audience their excellent and well-prepared speeches.

At the end of the ceremony, all the elected winners took photos together, and gave their best wishes to the Campus English Newspaper.

Notes

Although we are young, we will do our best to develop ourselves and make ourselves strong. In addition, we are waiting for your participation. If you want, please don't hesitate to join us!
